

HAUNTED WINE TOUR AUDITION READING: TOUR GUIDE

Do you feel that? That chill upon the nape of your neck. The one that creeps into your bones and sends shivers down your spine. Those are the lost and restless souls of Bull Run and they have stories to tell. Whether you came here for the wine or for the spirits tonight, you'll get plenty of both.

So, please, gather around the lantern and do not stray into the dark, no matter what you may see. Look alive, as they say, there's no turning back now.
